The pandemic caused by the SARS COV-2 virus has impacted various spheres of daily life, demonstrating the importance of human capital formation, scientific and technological development, as well as the value of strategic alliances.

The current context has evidenced the need to strengthen cooperation ties, promote actions that contribute to sustainable development and innovate in the way of effectively facing global problems and challenges.

In this sense and in order to contribute to the formation of human capital of excellence and equal access to quality, inclusive and equitable education, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (SRE), through the Mexican Agency for International Cooperation for Development (AMEXCID), invites foreigners interested in studying in Mexico to participate in this Call for the Excellence Scholarship Program of the Government of Mexico for Foreigners, 2022 edition.
