Calling Applications for Short Course on “Economics of Development, Administration and Impactful Growth Strategies: November 24, 25, 28 and December 01-02, 2022 (Blended)”

We are pleased to announce that the above training module will be conducted free of charge for the staff grade/executive officers in the public sector (with a nominal fee for semi-public sector officers) on the given dates. Knowledgeable panel consisting of local (in-person) and foreign experts (online) will be delivering sessions. Medium of instruction is English and Sinhala.

The module takes the participants to a completely different realm of development thinking where they would understand a new paradigm of development trajectory. Hence, the learning outcomes spread in a wide-spectrum of development sectors: economic, governance, agriculture, industry, and social, labor, urbanization and trade insisting the active participation of officers involved in those sectors. At the end of the module, participants will acquire sound knowledge of formulating advance economic development strategies with strong understanding on growth drivers. The module content includes;

- Middle income-trap and exit strategies
- Trade and development
- Governance & economic development
- Agriculture and development
- Growth models (GDP, Lewis dual-sector Rostov, Solow)
- Current economic crisis and exit strategies
- Markets, efficiency and growth
- Urban and rural nexus in poverty
- Full-scale growth strategies
- Decent work, informal and formal sector labor engagement

Accordingly, you are kindly requested to nominate suitable officers for this module, and encourage them to register their applications by visiting our website (<http://www.slida.lk/>) “Apply Online”. Appreciate also a lot if you could circulate the attached flyer prepared in this regard among the interested officials. For more information, please contact Mr. K R Gangadhara, Senior Consultant/Module Coordinator; mobile: 0718215469; Registration deadline is November 17, 2022).

Your cooperation in this regard is greatly appreciated.
